Less Than Half Million in Quota

Big Allied Drive in Champagne

AMOUNT ALLOTTED TO THIS CITY MORE THAN LAST LIBERTY LOAN, BUT WE WILL RAISE MONEY

Richmond knows what she is to accomplish in the next Liberty Loan Drive which opens in this city on Saturday and will continue for three weeks. According to word sent to chairman Crary of this city last night by Chairman Hale, of the County Liberty Loan Committee at Martinez, we are to subscribe for $465,000 of the Fourth Issue of Liberty Loan and it is predicted that the task will be a comparatively easy one. The county quota is $1,550,300. The quota for Pinole and Hercules is in addition to this and the sum these two towns must raise will be $85,500.

While it will take some scratching on the part of the workers to secure that amount attributed to this city, still it can be done in record time. We raised a greater amount in the last Liberty Loan and can do it again and again. All we have to do is to put our shoulder to the wheel and keep pushing until we go over the top in Richmond's usual enthusiastic manner.

The great drive begins tomorrow evening with a monster parade of industrial workers and the citizens of the town generally. Everybody is expected to be in line, which will form on the side streets along Macdonald avenue and they will march to Sixteenth street and thence counter march to Ninth and then to the band stand on Navin avenue. It will be a goodly body of men and those who are arranging for the pageant declare that fully six thousand men and women will be in line, with at least three bands, several drum corps and all equipment with banners flying.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING.

Chairman Crary held a meeting of the Loan Drive workers last night in the Elks' Lodge room and the place was crowded with enthusiastic workers. All details of what is expected of each and every worker was gone over by the executive committee and the chairman, so that each one knows his or her proper place in the work. The utmost confidence was expressed that Richmond would go over the top in fine shape.

The supply of pledge cards, buttons and window cards were distributed among the various factory heads and drive workers and the general situation was gone over in all its aspects.

CAMPAIGN OPENS SATURDAY.

Saturday, September 28th, is the day set by the government for the opening of the campaign, and its closing is to be October 24th, so there is less than a month to raise the money in.

The bonds will be dated October 24th 1918, and will bear 4 1-4 per cent interest, the denominations being $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

BANK PLAN OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Initial installment 10 per cent.

Payable before October 19, 1918.

Balance in six monthly installments of 15 per cent, which means on a $50.00 Bond:

$5.00 down and $7.50 per month.

On a $100.00 Bond:

$10.00 down and $15.00 per month.

S. F. Nelson, of the San Francisco Ad Club, was present last night and made the principal address to the workers.

NIGHT JOY RIDERS MUST GET GASOLINE BEFORE DARK

After October 1 no gasoline will be sold by California dealers except between 6 a. m. and 6 p. m.

A request to this effect has been sent to every dealer in the state by D. M. Folsom, director of the Pacific Coast section of the fuel administration's oil division. Most of the larger dealers have already indicated their compliance.

The purpose of the new rule is to conserve oil and to release additional men for the draft.

The request came at the suggestion of the Pacific Coast Petroleum War Service Committee, which has been discussing means for conserving man power by cutting down the number of men employed in the oil industry.

As a further step in gasoline conservation Secretary of the Navy Daniels, according to advices received in San Francisco today, has forbidden officers and men in the navy to use automobiles or motor boats unnecessarily on Sundays.

IT'S GOOD PATRIOTISM TO SAVE

A successful nation is merely a nation composed of successful individuals. And the habit of saving is an essential element in individual success. Hence, our assertion that "It's good patriotism to save."

Prodigality has ruined nations. Has one ever heard of national destruction through thrift? Never.

This is a new phase to the saving idea—but it is nevertheless a very vital phase. The man or woman who has a savings account has the satisfaction of knowing that he or she is one of the great army of war workers who can lend to the government, give to the cause of democratizing the world and bring to a quick end the persecuting rule of autocracy.

Are you among the patriotic savers? If not then enroll with them now.

TRAIN CREW IS RESPONSIBLE FOR LOSS OF PROPERTY

Somebody is in bad among the Santa Fe trainmen and there is to be an investigation of high officials tomorrow morning to ascertain who is to blame for leaving the Oakland branch freight train on the main line to the mole last night, thereby causing a bad wreck when a switch engine came up from the mole with a train and slammed her plank into it, strewing the country round with fragments of freight cars and debris of like character.

The Oakland train crew appear to be the goats, according to the belief of yard officials. Certain it is that when Engineer Hendrick, and Fireman Wilkins came up from the mole with a long train of cars under Yard Foreman Wilkinson and bumped into the Oakland train there was some commotion. All the trainmen managed to jump before the locomotive struck and thus saved their lives, but there was certainly a lot or railroad property destroyed.

The accident occurred last night after dark and the street cars were tied up all night from going further west than the right of way of the Santa Fe on Standard avenue. The wreck is being cleaned up today by a crew of men.

DELAP DECLARES SHERMAN SHORT ON VOCABULARY

Lieutenant T. H. DeLap, in a letter received today by Charles J. Crary, manager of the First National Bank, declares that Sherman's profane vocabulary did not begin to describe the horrors of war and he is inclined to believe the famous general who made the march through Georgia to the sea was something of a piker after all.

De Lap is laison officer, attached to an infantry regimental headquarters. He lives with the colonel of the regiment and says he eats at an honest-to-God table on a plate with knives and forks and sleeps in a sure-enough bed. But the hell comes in when the battle begins. DeLap is the man who keeps the artillery informed of what the infantry is doing during an offensive and he must pass from one branch of the fighting sector to another. He is some busy man and his position is an extremely important one as well as being somewhat hazardous.

He remarks in passing that this is some war.

MAYOR LANE'S SON IS CRITICALLY ILL

Walter, the little son of Mayor and Mrs. W. L. Lane is critically ill at the family home, 219 South Fifth street. The little fellow has been unconscious, according to the doctors, for nearly a week.

It will be met there by a committee in charge of Charles F. Donnelly and will go from there to the Santa Fe shops where a short concert will be given. Robert S. Dukes, a San Francisco attorney, will address the men. From there the band will go to the Western Pipe & Steel Company and will arrive at 5:00 p. m. At 5:00 p. m. the band will play once or twice on Macdonald avenue.

The speaker of the evening for the Liberty Bond Campaign will be Edward T. Rainey. Other brief speeches will be delivered, including one by a Four-Minute representative from the High School.

"RENT A ROOM AND BUY A LIBERTY BOND"

"Rent a room and buy a Liberty Bond."

That is one of the slogans being used in the campaign being pressed at Government request to unearth rooms and housekeeping accommodations for factory workers and their families.

And the Richmond housewife can do that very thing. She can set aside a room for some worker and with the rent can rapidly acquire a bond. She performs a double duty—making a place for the factory employee and also investing in a Government war security and doing that much more toward victory.

Beside the clean, strong, intelligent men that have made labor in industrial plants their life work, there are now in the ranks of labor many attorneys, many clerks and accountants and many others from all walks of life, the entire array forming a high class body of men to whom all may open their homes and be proud to have them under their roofs.

Manager J. A. Baldy of the Placement Bureau established here under Government supervision is up to his neck in work. Many householders are coming in with offers of rooms. The Mobilized Women are listing many rooms and housekeeping quarters and turning them into the bureau. The women are doing a thorough job, as it was known they would. The praise given them by citizens and by the Government agents are merited.

Men needing quarters should call on Manager Waldy at the office of the Placement Bureau, 914 Macdonald avenue.

MINISTER'S SON RECEIVES HIS COMMISSION

Rev. J. C. Gillette received a telegram from his son, Dr. N. T. Gillette of Corry, Pennsylvania, that he had just received a cablegram from his brother, Sergeant Frank Gillette, announcing his promotion to a commission. Sergeant Frank Gillette has been in France for a long time and shortly after going over made the grade for the training camp.

He has just received his commission and although he did not state what grade he had made it is presumed that it is a lieutenancy. As yet he has not been assigned to his unit.

The news of the son's promotion is received by Rev. J. C. Gillette and family with the greatest pleasure.

UNITED STATES AND FRENCH FORCES OPEN OFFENSIVE TO TURN GERMAN FLANK

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, September 26 (9:10 a. m.)—French troops today attacked in the Champagne in a thick fog after a period of artillery preparation which terminated in an hour of most intense drumfire.

The early indications are that the attack was progressing most favorably.

PARIS, September 26.—French and American troops began a joint attack this morning on the Champagne front and in the region beyond it on the east, today's war office statement announces.

The statement says that the French attack was launched in the Champagne in co-operation with the American Army, which it attacking further to the east.

Renewed German attacks north of [illegible] were repulsed. At one point where the Germans gained a foothold upon the French positions they were ejected by a counter attack.

The Franco American attack on Champagne front is the first allied thrust made on that sector since Marshal Foch assumed the initiative in July and is the logical result of the allied success in Pacardy in driving the Germans back to the Hindenburg line from Arras to Laon.

A drive northward in Champagne threatens the communication lines in the rear of the Hindenburg defense system, where the Germans are struggling to keep the British and French from breaking through. While the length to the front of attack is not disclosed, it is probable it extends a good part of the distance from Rheims to Verdun and probably beyond.

Military critics have pointed out that the Champagne front was the logical place where an allied effort intended to destroy the effectiveness of the Hindenburg line could be made. For some distance east of Rheims the terrain is fairly level and open and an advance of some distance here would outflank Laon and possibly St. Quentin.

More important still, such an advance would cause the communication lines eastward from Laon, the pivot of the German defenses between Rheims and Ypres. An allied break through might separate the German forces in the west into two groups.

There has been rather lively raiding activity by both sides on the Champagne front in the last two weeks and some military commentators have felt that these were the forerunners of greater activity.

MEN URGED TO SECURE QUESTIONAIRE

With renewed call for speed in getting out the lists of draft registrants, warning camp yesterday from Washington, calling upon eligibles to heed the order that it is up to them to get their questionnaires, even though there should be failure for any cause in the delivery to the registrant's address.

It is set forth that the duty is imposed upon the registrant of obtaining a duplicate in such failure and to secure extension of time, if necessary, in cases where affidavits on claims of deferred classification are to be made, but cannot be procured within the specified time of seven days for filing the claim.

REGISTRANTS RESPONSIBLE.

"The burden is upon the registrants," says the provost marshal general, "to get the questionnaires from the local board and to return them within seven days."

Concerning deferred classification claims, the regulations provide that the registrant shall make them upon as many grounds as he legally may invoke, no matter whether or not they may seem to be conflicting.

This goes to the possibility of classification in Two on occupational grounds and in Four for dependency.

"If dependency ceased," it is pointed out, "the registrant would revert to Class Two, but if he had not made the occupational claim he would go into Class One and be subject to the next draft call."

HALF A MILLION

Since the beginning of the War these banks have bought $500,000.00 worth of U. S. Treasury Certificates. We now hold in various U. S. Government securities over $390,000.00.

These investments bring a lower return but it is our policy to help the Government in every way possible by purchasing U. S. Securities to win the war.

RESCUING RUSSIA.

Four years ago, what human could have imagined the landing of American soldiers at Archangel, on the White Sea, in Russia, for a descent on what was then called St. Petersburg? Not one, surely; but this strangely fantastic thing has taken place, and it meets with approbation from all Americans. It is even a little late in its happening. It should have taken place before. We are approaching, belatedly, the maddened and very likely burning capital of the once proud Russian Empire by way of the Arctic zone, and meeting no resistance except from the enemies of Russia, sans culotte natives and German invaders. The facts of history are stranger than the fiction of the most riotous imaginations.

Attendant upon the strangeness of the main fact is the information received from Archangel, where our troops have landed, that "many of the American soldiers, speak Russian fluently." As a result of this, they get along famously with the natives. This fact also signalizes an historical wonder. It testifies to the amazing fact that these men of fighting qualities and sterling Americanism, largely from the crowded districts of our great northern cities, where hundreds of thousands of natives of Russia, nearly all of the Jewish faith, have settled within the last quarter-century, quickly becoming American citizens there and proudly assuming the duties of their citizenship. No longer Russians, the Russian speech nevertheless lingers on their lips, and the Archangelians are astonished to hear the accents of their own tongue come to them from beneath the slouch hats of these transatlantic crusaders—a form of headgear which to them tells only of the burning plains of the wild West.

A strange destiny is that of America—first to receive and almost instantly to assimilate these remote and sharply foreign elements, and then to return them as our own missionaries of peace and democracy with order! The long-suffering, bewildered victimized and seemingly helpless common people of Russia may well be overjoyed at the sight of these Americans within their gates. They bring a message of great hope. Together with the rescuing advance of the Entente forces, including our Americans, on the other end of the long Russian line in Siberia—the coast region there being now cleared of the Bolshevik fanatics and the way opened to Russia—the "invasion" in the north, which troubles Lenine and Trotzky so much, promises resurrection and life to fallen Russia. Under its protecting wing the nightmare of sans-culottism will pass, and sober sense will rule again in Russia. The only thing needed is that more and more troops shall go to Russia, until by their strength and their enterprise they, with our Allies, complete the deliverance of the country and turn its guns against the common enemy.

A real war plane is going to drop bombs on Richmond on Saturday, according to information that comes to us from Mather Field. This plane is coming down here to assist in spreading the enthusiasm of opening the Liberty Loan campaign. The bombs will be made of paper and will be entirely harmless. The idea is for all the towns to be visited in the bay section.

SHOULD CLAIM EXEMPTION.

Local officials of the United States Railroad Administration have made public two important messages dealing with the subject of deferred classification as applied to railroad employes and those engaged in necessary industries.

The first message was from Director General W. G. McAdoo, testifying that any competent railroad employe taken from this indispensable branch of railroad service will be subtracted from a force which is already too small and which cannot be adequately replenished. Railroad officials were urged to see that all employes necessary to the war operations of the railroad file claims for exemption.

The second message was a statement by the Provost Marshal General addressed to employes and other representatives of industry pointing out the responsibility that lay with the individual to claim exemption if he was entitled to it. Railroad officials are endeavoring to get both statements into the hands of every railroad employe in the country and to see that all draft boards are provided with copies.

McAdoo's statement says:

"All applications made by officers of railroads under Federal control for deferred classification for railroad officers and employes and all affidavits made by railroad officers in support of claims for such deferred classification are made by them as officers of the United States Railroad Administration and by my authority and in pursuance of a general policy which in my judgment must be adopted in order to meet the war responsibilities which confront railroads under Federal control.'

* * * It is the patriotic duty of men considered necessary for the operation of the railroads to claim deferred classification."

Provost Marshal General Crowder's statement contains the same message applied to all essential war industries, and points out that any general tendency of registrants, through mistaken chivalry, to pass the question of exemption up to the draft board for decision would entail enormous loss of time. Employers are charged with the responsibility of seeing to it that employes necessary to their industries claim exemption or that exemption claims are made in their behalf.

HARK TO THEIR WAIL.

Unanswerable documentary evidence, showing that Lenine and Trotzfiky have been mere tools of Germany, paid agents and instructed instruments from the beginning of the Russian debacle, will have little or no effect upon the half-baked radicals of this or any other country, the emotionals who court notoriety by denouncing the war and hold hands in court while awaiting judgment. The expose now being printed from day to day leaves nothing to the imagination or to speculation. Men have been hanged, beheaded or electrocuted in every part of the globe on testimony far less convincing.

Lenine and Trotzky are proved to be sordid hucksters in the blood of a nation; traitors to their own flag and enemies of mankind. They have not the excuse of zealots. They sold out to the enemy of their country. They have the fruits of their crime planted. Trotzky's wife is in a neutral country with a million dollars waiting to be rejoined by the monster who espoused the German cause, first for gain, but would not have done so had he not been convinced that the Germans would win this war. Now that German defeat is certain the problem of these two sinister figures after the war looms darkly before them. After peace is declared the world will hardly be large enough to hold the socalled premier and the usurping foreign minister of the Bolsheviki.

But we may safely look out for a protest from our resident radicals if they are dealt with according to their deserts. Resident radicals are built that way.

A lot of men who wish the war would end are doing nothing to accomplish that result. There is a lot to be done at home in the way of financing the boys over there and providing them with all sorts of support which will help them win the war speedily. What are you doing along this line

WOMEN MAY BE CONDUCTORS.

It is stated that if the scarcity of men continues that the street railway company will place "conductorettes" on the cars. The members of the Carmen's Union say they have no objections, but that the women must receive the same wages that the men receive, for the same service.

BERKELEY DEFENSE CORPS WOULD REPEAL DUCK LAW TO CONSERVE CROPS OF STATE

BERKELEY, September 26.—Demanding an immediate repeal or modification of the Federal Game Law prohibiting the killing of ducks before the opening of the season fixed by law and asserting that the ducks are a menace and a destroyer to the rice crops of Glenn, Colusa and Butte counties, the Berkeley Defense Corps, 700 strong have passed resolutions and forwarded them to Washington.

The resolutions set forth that the rice growers face financial loss as well as prosecution and arrest by Federal officers, should they protect their crops, covering some 50,000 acres, by killing the ducks before the opening of the season.

The Defense Corps characterizes the law as vicious and unwise and as recommended without adequate knowledge of the needs of the large body of farmers by the Biological Survey and the Department of Agriculture.

The five demands in the resolution follow:

1.—That we demand the immediate repeal or modification of this law.

2.—That we are thoroughly convinced that however important ducks may appear to the scientists of our Department of Agriculture, their importance does not compare with the rights of American citizens who are doing their part to win this war.

3.—That to allow ducks to eat up large portions of these crops at this time would be tantamount to taking these men's property without due process of law.

4.—That if no relief can be obtained by legislative action in time to save these rice fields, that we most strenuously demand that the President of the United States exercise his powers at once and prevent this criminal waste of valuable and needed food.

TO ALL PATRIOTIC CITIZENS

The following appeal to patriotism is issued by the Power Administrator appointed by the Railroad Commission of the State of California:—

Conserve Electricity

Patriotism demands that you save electricity for war industries.

Northern and Central California have a SERIOUS power shortage because of lack of rain during the past winter and the increased use of electricity by war industries.

These War Industries Must Have Power

There is not enough power for everybody at the present rate of consumption. It is up to you to save. Turn off lights whenever possible and use lower power lamps.

This is one other thing you can do in the great struggle.

Not One Chinese In Ten Thousand Has Constipation

except a few drug users, while about 90 per cent of the Americans suffer from this dread complaint. The FONG WAN HERB SPECIALIST gives the following explanation of this phenomenon. "When a Chinese is ill, he immediately consults a Herb Specialist and the cause is removed, but when an American feels bad, the first thing he does is to take a PHYSIC. This may relieve him temporarily, but repeated doses of such drugs eventually paralyze the bowels. As the bowels then no longer move naturally, physic alone becomes a habit, the weakened bowels drag, and there is a heavy pressure of gas on the rectum. If the poor victim goes to a regular physician will usually tell him that his trouble is piles; if a woman, that it is female trouble." By drinking the Fong Wan harmless Chinese herbs, hundreds of Americans have not only been relieved of their stomach and bowel troubles, but have been made normal again. Their testimonials are on file.

NEW RULES FOR GAINING COMMISSIONS IN THE ARMY

WASHINGTON, Septembr 26.—Physically fit men between 18 and 45 years of age who are placed in class one by local draft boards, or who would be so placed except for occupational deferment, cannot become candidates for commissions in the army until they have been inducted into service, as privates under rulings of the adjutant general, made public today and superseding previous orders on the subject.

Registrants placed in the subdivision of class one reserved for limited or special service, however, may be commissioned direct from civil life and no barrier is interposed to the commissioning of men direct from civil life, providing their local boards have given them deferred classification on dependency grounds.

Qualified registrants who have applied for commissions in army staff corps and who are desired by a certain corps, may have their classification and physical examinations by local boards advanced on presentation of a certificate from a chief of corps or department of the army. In cases where it is desired to commission a class one man, he may be inducted into service immediately and promoted thereafter.

To carry out the provisions of the order, Provost Marshal General Crowder today authorized local boards to examine and classify out of their turns such registrants as may be affected by rulings.

Local boards are also authorized to examine and classify without regard to normal order such men as may be accepted by the navy and marine corps, in order that their immediate voluntary induction may be arranged.

FOOD CONSERVATION MEETING TONIGHT LINCOLN AUDITORIUM; MUSIC, SPEAKING

This evening at the Lincoln Auditorium Fred L. Thomas will address the citizens of this city on the subject of food conservation. The lecture is to be free and the public—and this means both men and women—is cordially invited to turn out and hear what this gifted speaker has to say on this oft-discussed subject.

Mr. Thomas is a member of the speakers Bureau of the United States Food Administration for California. He is a Native Son and has for a decade been Assistant District Attorney of Santa Clara County. Mr. Thomas is a man of much practical experience, and those who have heard him speak agree that he will ably present the new Food program.

The Richmond Municipal Band and the Elcho Trio will furnish music for the occasion and it is expected that Lincoln Auditorium will be filled to capacity, for the opportunity is a good one to hear directly the new Food program for the coming year, as determined at the conference during September of Mr. Hoover and all State Administrators at Washington.

Harry Ivory, local Food Administrator is extremely anxious that the people of Richmond turn out and hear Mr. Thomas, for there are a great many things everybody should know that he will be able to explain clearly with first-hand knowledge of what he is talking about. He will be able to tell the people the whys and wherefores of this or that order and will be ready to answer any and all questions which may be propounded by anybody in the audience.

That the American people are making good on Food Conservation is warmly stated by Herbert Hoover and his assistants in Washington and that their self-denial of foods which they have been accustomed to all their lives is proving a big factor in winning the war, goes without saying. But we must keep it up to the end, for we must beat the Hun, even if we are compelled to cut ourselves down to half rations. However, this will not be necessary. All we have to do is to eat savingly and sanely. There is enough food in America to feed everybody indefinitely if we will do this.

GROCERS MUST POST COST AND SELLING PRICE

Effective October 1st all retail grocers and retailers of fresh vegetables are required to post conspicuously in their stores a sign not less than three feet broad by five feet high and on which is to be displayed the cost and the selling price of the following articles:

Wheat flour, barley flour, victory flour, corn meal, rice, sugar, potatoes, onions, canned tomatoes, canned corn, canned peas, canned salmon, evaporated milk, butter, eggs, lard substitutes, bacon, ham, two varieties of fresh vegetables, two varieties of fresh fruit.

Under the new rules of the Food Administration the retail grocer is required to base his cost price as displayed above on the actual invoice cost of the merchandise plus any freight or cartage into his store. He is permitted to add no other charges whatever against this cost. Base the cost price on one can or one package rather than a dozen. For example, if evaporated milk costs $6.25, put the cost price in at 13 cents.

The grocer also is permitted, if he desires, to add a line at the bottom of the bulletin, reading as follows: "Our cost of doing business is —% based on the selling price." Any dealer displaying such a line is required before doing so to mail a statement to his City or County Food Administrator analyzing his cost.

As noted above, every dealer is required to post his cost and selling price on two varieties of fresh vegetables and two varieties of fresh fruit. The Food Administration permits the dealer to choose his own fruit and vegetables and to change the variety or grade each day if desired. He can make the change any time during the day if he runs out, but not otherwise.

THE JONIOR RED CROSS WILL AID BELGIAN RELIEF

Under the direction of Superintendent W. T. Helms the Junior Red Cross of Richmond is doing its share in the Clothing Campaign for Belgium.

The children may take their donations to school and each teacher will see that they are sent on to headquarters.

The Juniors of Richmond have responded so efficiently to all appeals made to them that they must not lower their standards in the present call for help.

Almost every child in Richmond can give some article of clothing that will be of use to a Belgian child during the approaching winter.

List of the articles most needed have already been published, but a recent call has come for scraps of leather for repair, so send in any leather scraps of any sort that you may have.

Worn garments will be accepted to be used as they are, or to be remodeled by the destitute women in the afflicted countries. But these garments are for actual use as necessities in a very severe climate and nothing should be sent which is not serviceable.

Mrs. W. A. Booke, chairman of the Relief Committee, reports that many women are telling her collectors that they have no time to mend and clean garments otherwise suitable for giving. Don't let this keep you from giving. As stated above the women abroad will be able to do some repairing themselves, so if it is impossible for you to do the mending send in the garments with pieces suitable for patching and they will be forwarded just the same. The committee will see to having garments cleaned if you are unable to clean them.

FILM DRAMA IS ATTRACTING AT THE RICHMOND

Vivian Martin long has held an unique place in the circles of film luminaries, because of her vivacity, naturalness and charm. As a paramount star she has won hosts of admirers throughout the country, all of whom regard her as one of the most delightful of all cinema actresses. That she possesses an inimitable naivette, with artistry of the highest order, generally is conceded.

In her new picture, "Unclaimed Goods," at the Richmond Theatre today, Miss Martin appears in a Western role, that of the daughter of a Sheriff, and she undergoes the remarkable experience of being shipped as an express package to a mining town, but when she reaches her destination, her uncle, who was to have claimed her, fails to appear. The mining town is in the hands of bandits, the leader of whom, attracted by the girl's beauty, is about to buy her at auction, when she is saved by a man she had befriended and who sacrifices his life in her behalf.

On the same bill appears the second feature of a big double bill, entitled "One Touch of Nature." It is a baseball picture.

200 RICHMONDITES

Theodore Bell has many friends and admirers in Richmond and he will receive a large vote here when the time for election rolls around.

Little Bobby is a 100 per cent patriot. He likes his candy, ice cream soda, popcorn, peanuts and chewing gum just like every little boy—but today his spending money oges for "Thrift Stamps First."

Every week he adds one or two to his Thrift Card—and he is happy that in his way he is doing as much to help win the war as his Big Brother Bill who enlisted in the Marines and is on the firing line "over there" now.

We can all help beat the Kaiser and the things for which he stand—some with our swords—others with our savings.
Have you the Thrift Stamp Habit? You should have—and the time to start is now.
